

Frank to present Vase at Wembley

FORMER Wycombe Wanderers captain Frank Adams, who donated the F.A. Vase to the Football Association this season, will present the trophy to the first ever winners at Wembley tomorrow (Saturday).

Mr. Adams, a long serving player and current patron of Wycombe, is a life member of the F.A. and donated a magnificent trophy for the Vase competition which is being held for the first time this season. The Vase, which replaced the Amateur Cup, is for teams who did not compete in the F.A. Trophy.

In appreciation of the gift, the F.A. asked Mr. Adams to present the trophy tomorrow. The two clubs in the final, which is unlikely to attract a crowd of more than 10,000, are Epsom and Ewell and Hoddesdon Town who play in the Surrey Senior and Spartan Leagues respectively.

Local club Marlow reached the last eight of the competition before going down to Addlestone, who in turn lost to Epsom in the semi-final.

Wycombe Wanderers patron Frank Adams with the F.A. Vase he will present to the winners of the final at Wembley tomorrow.